INSPIRE Is Changing

The screenshot displays the INSPIRE website interface. At the top, there are three main navigation buttons: SEARCH. (with a magnifying glass icon), EXPLORE. (with a magnifying glass icon), and INSPIRE. (with the INSPIRE logo). Below these, the INSPIRE logo is prominently displayed with the tagline "A Service of the Indiana State Library". To the right of the logo are several navigation links: A-Z Resource List, About, Hot Topics, Training, and Help.

The main content area features a search section with tabs for Basic Search, Advanced Search, and Search tips. Below the tabs, there are links for Search by subject and Search by database. A search input field is present, followed by a dropdown menu set to Keyword and a Search button.

Below the search section is a list of subject categories, each with a checkbox and a link:

At the bottom of the page, there is a row of logos for various services: Kids Search, Student Research Center, Testing & Education Reference Center, INDIANA HISTORY, eBooks on EBSCOhost, Indiana State Library, TeachingBooks-net, and Indiana Memory.

Below the logos, a small line of text states: "INSPIRE is a service of the Indiana State Library. INSPIRE is supported by the Indiana General Assembly through Build Indiana Funds, The Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library of Congress and TeachingBooks-net. All are in partnership with the Indiana State Library of Indiana."

About this collection

This collection contains 37,180 issues comprising 257,983 pages.

Hoosier State Chronicles is operated by the Indiana State Library and funded by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act. We seek to provide free, online access to high quality digital images of Indiana's historic newspapers by digitizing our collection, and assisting other organizations in making their collections digitally available. Follow our blog to learn more about Hoosier State Chronicles, and read posts about yesteryear's news.

This online resource originated with grant funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities that enabled us, in partnership with the Indiana Historical Society, to digitize Indiana newspapers for the National Digital Newspaper Program (NDNP). The Indiana titles digitized through NDNP are also available at the Library of Congress's Chronicling America, along with over 8 million newspaper pages from around the United States. You can find additional digitized Indiana newspapers in Indiana Memory and also listed on our blog.

The Indiana State Library Newspaper Division has the largest collection of Indiana newspapers either in print, microfilm or digital format. For an overview of the available resources for Indiana newspaper research visit their website.

Summary: Two men, each handsome and unusually adept at his chosen work, embodied an element of the great dynamic that characterized America's rush toward the twentieth century. The architect was Daniel Hudson Burnham, the fair's brilliant director of works and the builder of many of the country's most important structures, including the Flatiron Building in New York and Union Station in Washington, D.C.
